

Thinking about mission?

The ultimate purpose of mission is to glorify God by proclaiming the gospel of Christ in the power of the Spirit so that people from all nations will be saved, gathered into local churches where they will be disciplined, and as mature believers, will worship and obey God, and transform their communities.

As a World Mission Group at All Saints, we are passionate about seeing this fulfilled in the church family and are prayerfully seeking to encourage the church as a whole to consider their role in God's great commission.

If this is something you are thinking about and something to which God is calling you, a good place to start would be to have a chat and pray with Steve Rees, Judy Acheson or Adam Thrift so that they can help you think through what the best next step is.

Below is a selection of a few agencies that exist to work with the local church in order to facilitate mission. This is a catalogue of just a few mission agencies and a taste of their focus. It is, by no means, an exhaustive list but we hope it will help as you seek to be obedient to God's calling.

May God bless you and make his will clear to you as you seek to serve Him.
