Hospitality and evangelistic ministry to English people and expatriates.
Tricia Parker of All Saints (2014-2015)

Jim and Annette faithfully followed the call in retirement. Using their gifts they have fulfilled various roles in the church and the community such as: mentoring, pastoral care, treasurer and project manager for the new church.

Grateful members outside the facade of their now completed church called 'The Shelter'.

Philip cycled from Crowborough to Loches to celebrate his 70th birthday and in aid of the church.

The English must have their cup of tea!

Church complete with chairs donated by St Richard's. Bench presented by Loches in gratitude for gift of these chairs.

Tamaris was set up by Jim and Annette as a channel of social care and concern for the community and financially supported by All Saints and St Richards.

The Aquila project, written by Jim and Annette to help people going through divorce is now available in English and French.

Different teams from All Saints and St Richard's came for one to two weeks at a time to help with the construction of the church, the kitchen, the toilets, the office and the renovation of the flat above the church.

The churches got involved in the church planting in Loches through prayer, donations and practical help.

Tricia arranged a visit for Bertie Pearce from All Saints. Well-known magician and Christian.

The team enjoying a well-deserved meal and of course a good French wine.
